

This switch turns on the water pump when power is connected to the main supply box.

These U-ground outlets supply power to the dock area when power is connected to the main supply box.